

It would be a disservice our local community to not have K-LOVE to listen too. It is inspirational and uplifting for a world that is full of negative influences. As a Christian I have the right to the programming that appeals to me also. People have few choices in Christian programming and it would be a shame to KLOVE.